

CLEARFIELD COUNTY

The Department provides the following programs and specialized services:

- Community Service Program – One (1) adult probation officer is assigned to manage this Program. Offenders are sentenced to community service at the discretion of the Court. Offenders do not receive the hourly rate they earn for work but, rather, it is applied to their respective restitution accounts. Supervision and Accelerated Rehabilitative Disposition (ARD) fees provide funding. Typical examples of community service include: cutting grass at baseball fields and cemeteries; roadside litter pick-up; donating blood (minimum of 10 hours); and, work at non-profit agencies.
- Intermediate Punishment Program – One (1) adult probation officer is assigned to this Program which consists of supervised bail and intensive supervision cases. The participants can be offenders with a felony conviction, select sexual offenders or previous probation violators.
- Home Detention Program – One (1) adult probation officer is assigned to this Program. Offenders are monitored by Global Positioning System (GPS). Clearfield County has twenty-five (25) GPS units available. The majority of offenders in the Program are early releases, while the remainder have either been sentenced to the Program by the Court or sanctioned by the Department.
