C. Words and Phrases

Application: A written request seeking parole consideration from the Board.

Board Action (PBPP-15) (Green sheet): The written decision rendered by the PBPP following the Parole Board interview/hearing.

Board Detainer: A warrant lodged by the PBPP.

Boot Camp Case: An offender whose minimum sentence is abrogated by law on Boot Camp placement and is released by statute without a minimum interview.

Certification: For any offender who is serving a sentence for a violent offense, the Chairman of the Parole Board must certify that all release requirements have been met, before the offender can be released.

Concurrent Sentences: Sentences imposed to be served at the same time.

Consecutive Sentences: Sentences imposed to be served one after another. State law requires that consecutive sentences be aggregated into one sentence structure with one minimum and one maximum sentence.

Constructive Parole: Service of a sentence on parole while incarcerated on another conviction.

County Detainer: A warrant lodged by a county of the State of Pennsylvania.

Crime Victims Compensation Fund: (Acts 27/86/85/35/96) A law that requires the offender to pay a fee to the County of conviction prior to release on parole.

Deportation Order: An order issued by the Federal Immigration and Customs Enforcement authorities to remove the offender from the United States.

Detainer: A written order of the court or paroling agency to hold a person in custody pending further legal action.

Determinate (Flat) Sentence: A sentence that only has a maximum length of time. The offender is eligible for parole at any time. The exception being a mandatory sentence, where an offender must serve the complete sentence in custody. The Board has no authority over these cases.

District Office: One of the ten district field offices of the PBPP, each serving an identified area of the state.

Direct Victim: An individual against whom a crime has been committed or attempted and who as a direct result of the criminal act or attempt suffers physical or mental injury, death or the loss of earnings under this act. The term shall not include the alleged offender. The term includes a resident of this Commonwealth against whom an act has been committed or attempted which otherwise would constitute a crime as defined in this act but for its occurrence in a location other than this Commonwealth and for which the individual would otherwise be compensated by the crime victim compensation program of the location where the act occurred but for the ineligibility of such program under the provisions of the Victims of Crime Act of 1984.

DNA Tracking Sheet: A Pa State Police document supplied to verify that a DNA sample has been drawn from an offender whose specified crime requires a sample to be drawn.

Docket: The docket is a monthly listing controlled by the PBPP Staff of those offenders scheduled for a Board Interview.

Domestic Violence: is a pattern of behavior reinforced by violence and/or the threat of violence, which can include physical, psychological, sexual, economic, and emotional abuse, perpetrated by one person against an intimate partner or family member, with the goal of establishing and maintaining power and control over the victim. Not all acts of domestic violence are necessarily violations of criminal law. However, all incidents of domestic violence should be viewed as a pattern of behavior, not an isolated criminal event. For purposes of this chapter, the Domestic Violence Protocol applies only to those offenders who commit acts of domestic violence against a current or former intimate partner, whether or not those acts rise to the level of criminal culpability.

Extra Interview Case: This identifies an offender who was previously interviewed on his minimum sentence and needs to be scheduled for an additional minimum interview (usually as the result of additional information or an additional sentence).

Extradition: The transfer of an offender from one sovereign jurisdiction to another.

Federal Detainer: A warrant lodged by any branch of the Federal Government.

General Sentence: Youthful offenders at one time were committed to the State Correctional Institution at Camp Hill by an adult criminal court with no specific minimum sentence being imposed. Such commitments carried a sentence up to six years and were eligible for parole at any time. This type of sentence is no longer legal in Pennsylvania; however, reference to this type of sentence may be found in old case material.

Green Sheet: Term used by offenders and staff to refer to the Board Action (PBPP-15), the written decision rendered by the PBPP following the Parole Board interview/hearing.

Home Plan: The residence where an offender plans to live upon release from custody.

ICMA: The Institutional Case Management Automation application is a computer-based application, which uses data input and controls to monitor cases throughout the paroling process.

ICSA: Integrated Case Summary Application. This computer based application is completed by both DOC and PBPP staff. It is a dynamic report that also contains historic information on the offender. Once created, this document will follow the offender throughout the service of the DOC sentence. If the offender returns as a parole violator or returns to confinement to serve a new DOC sentence, this report will contain a chronological record of the new data.

Indeterminate Sentence: A sentence with a minimum sentence of confinement which shall not exceed one-half of the maximum sentence imposed.

Interstate Office: A division of the PBPP that has responsibility to administer the Interstate Compact for Adult Offender Supervision between the compact's 53 signatories: all states, District of Columbia, Puerto Rico and the U.S. Virgin Islands.

Initial Sentence Status Report (PBPP-102): The official Parole Board document containing sentencing information on offenders serving their state sentence in a county facility.

ICE Detainer: A warrant lodged by the Immigration and Customs Enforcement.

Institutional Parole Summary (PBPP-245A): Summary of the offender's adjustment at a County Facility prepared by the county correctional facility staff for state offenders serving their sentence in a county facility.

LSI-R: Level of Service Inventory Revised is a risk-screening instrument and is part of the Parole Decision Making Guidelines. This instrument is accessed through a link in ICMA.

Minimum Sentence Case: This identifies an offender being considered for parole at their minimum date.

Megan's Law: A law that requires registration of the offender's address, employment, school, etc. with the State Police if the offender was convicted of a specified sex offense.

Negative Urine Result: A urinalysis taken for parole that shows no usage of controlled substances unless medically prescribed for the offender.

Official Version: A narrative of the offense describing in detail the facts of the crime. This information could be obtained from various sources including Affidavit of Probable Cause, Pre-Sentence Investigation, Criminal Complaint or Police/Arrest Report.

Other State Detainer: A warrant lodged by a state other than Pennsylvania.

Parent Institution: The state correctional facility to which an offender has been classified to serve his/her sentence.

Parole Decisional Instrument (PBPP-361): An instrument used by the Board to assist in the process of parole consideration.

Parole Release Pending Report: A list of offenders, which have a paroling action from the Board, but for some specified reason(s), have yet to be released.

Philadelphia Photo Number (PPN): A unique seven-digit number assigned to all offenders arrested in Philadelphia.

Prescriptive Program Plan (DC-43): Treatment document established by the DOC to notify offenders of recommended programming needs.

Rebuttable Parole: A statute designated non-violent offender who has been certified by the DOC based on a good conduct record and nonviolent history.

Reclassification Summary (DC-13A): Summarization of the offender's adjustment prepared by the DOC for state correctional facility cases.

Review Case: This identifies an offender being considered for parole after being previously refused parole. Offenders are eligible for review upon receipt of a Board Action that refuses parole and stipulates a review date.

Recidivism Risk Reduction Incentive (RRRI): A sentence imposed upon a non-violent offender that can allow them the opportunity to reduce their minimum sentence upon completion of recommended programming, and while maintaining a good conduct record.

Sentence Status Summary (DC-16E): An official DOC document containing minimum and maximum dates on all sentences currently being served which includes a listing detainers and non-incarceration sentences for state offenders.

Short Minimum Case: Any offender received at classification centers at the State Correctional Institution at Camp Hill or Muncy are identified as a Short Minimum Case if the minimum sentence is twelve (12) months or less from date of commitment.

SOAB: Sexual Offenders Assessment Board is an independent Board who conducts risk assessments of sexual offenders.

State Identification Number (SID): The identification number initiated and used by the Pennsylvania State Police to identify offenders and is used by the PBPP staff for requesting RAP sheets.

State Intermediate Punishment (SIP): A program designed for offenders convicted of a drug offense. Offenders will serve a flat 24 month sentence. At least 7 months will be served in an SCI and for the remainder of the sentence the offender will be in a community correction center under DOC supervision. The Board has no authority over these cases.

State Sentence Detainer: A warrant for the service of a sentence that is under the release jurisdiction of the Pennsylvania Board of Probation and Parole.

Static 99: A risk-screening instrument used only for sex offenders and is part of the Parole Decision Making Guidelines. This instrument is accessed through a link in the ICMA.

Violator: Offender who is recommitted by the Board based on new convictions while on parole or violation of the Board's technical conditions.

Violator case: This identifies an offender being considered for re-parole after violating parole supervision and being recommitted to prison. Offenders are eligible for a re-parole review if they have been recommitted as a Parole violator and have a Board action that stipulates a review date.

Violent Offender Indicator: A field on the client server docket system that shows whether or not current conviction is a crime of violence.

Violent Offense: Any crime defined as violent and included on the Board's "Violent /Sexual Crimes chart."

Vote Sheet (DC-46): The DOC recommendation showing actual vote from DOC staff recommending or not recommending parole.

Wolfe Hearing: A DOC misconduct hearing.
